Friday 8th March 2024 : Issue 21, 23/24

Dear Parents and Carers,

Children World Book Day yesterday, engaging with books and authors. We are really trying to create a culture of reading in school and so this was a very important day to recognise, as it is each year.

Parents' Evenings

A reminder to please make sure that you sign up for a meeting with your child(ren)'s class teacher(s) so that you can hear about their learning, progress and behaviour in school. Meetings for Years 1 to 6 are taking place on Tuesday 19th and Thursday 21st March.

Reading Volunteers Needed

Last year I wrote to you to ask for a wider range of volunteers, but then did not have capacity at the time to follow this through and for this I am very sorry. If you have any spare time that you could give to come into school to hear children read, we would very much like to hear from you now.

Please note that regular parent volunteers need to have a DBS check for safeguarding reasons

Seely Community Day of Action - Parent Volunteers needed

On the same theme, we are looking for parent volunteers to join us in a 'Community Day of Action' on Friday 19th April. We want to paint the picket fences in the KS1 playground and outside of Early Years – we are aiming for the school to look amazing. We will need to know numbers so please email the office if you are able to give your time on this day, stating either morning or afternoon.

Vacating school at 3:45pm

Please can we respectfully ask that you leave the school site by 3:45pm. This is for reasons of health and safety, but also so that after school activities can start promptly. Unfortunately the school site and equipment should not be used by parents and children after this time unless it is an organised event.

Shelly

Shelly is out of hibernation and back in school with us.. So we are once again looking for weekend families to look after him. Please email admin@seely.nottingham.sch.uk with the subject "Shelly" to put your names down and we will be in touch to confirm dates.

Very best wishes, Mrs K Clifford

Last Saturday we had a group of parents and children who swam hundreds of lengths between them. They were amazing!! We even had young people who left Seely School years ago who came back to get involved. We are at present collecting in sponsorship money and will let you know how much this fantastic group raised.
